Granada, Spain: Spanish Studies

THE PROGRAM

The Spanish Studies program in Granada, Spain is an exciting six-week program for undergraduate students. This program provides students with an opportunity to improve their command of Spanish and immerse themselves in the culture of Spain. Students will attend classes at the Centro de Lenguas Modernas at the University of Granada. Visit the program website for pictures and video: www2.gsu.edu/~wwwmcl/programs/granada.htm and www.gsugranada.com.

The program will feature many historic destinations and cultural activities. In Granada, students will visit Alhambra and Generalife, Catedral and Capilla Real and Albaicín y Sacromonte. In addition, there will be a day trip to Las Alpujarras and a cultural tour of the city. Students will spend two nights in Seville visiting Alcázar de Sevilla, Giralda, Catedral and Barrio de Santa Cruz. The four nights in Madrid will include Museo del Prado, Museo de Reina Sofía, Palacio de Oriente and Madrid de los Austrias y de los Borbones. In Córdoba, students will see Mezquita, Sinagoga and Judería (barrio judío de Córdoba).

ACCOMMODATIONS

Participants will live with selected Spanish families in Granada, allowing them to strengthen their language skills and be immersed in the culture of Spain. The host families will provide three meals per day and laundry service. In Madrid and Sevilla, students will stay in double-occupancy rooms.

Disability Accommodations

Students with documented disabilities who may need accommodations during their study abroad experience should discuss these needs with the Program Director and the Office of Disability Services at the time of application.

ELIGIBILITY

The program is open to undergraduate students who have a minimum 2.5 GPA and have completed at least two semesters of Spanish at college level or the equivalent (SPANISH1001 and 1002). Program size is limited and participation is contingent upon acceptance by the Program Director.

CREDITS AND COURSES

Participants who successfully complete the program's two courses will receive six semester hours of credit at Georgia State University. The credit will be in Spanish for selected 2000, 3000 or 4000 level courses. Students from other institutions should follow their institution's regulations concerning transfer credits.

COST

Program cost may vary at any time according to currency fluctuations and changing travel arrangements. The program cost is tentatively set at $4,350, PLUS regular Georgia State University tuition and fees. Non-resident/out-of-state students will pay in-state tuition plus a $250 fee in addition to the program cost.
