FINANCIAL AND MANAGERIAL DECISION MAKING IN EMERGING MARKETS: INDIA

Fall Study Abroad Program
December 8 - 24, 2017
Program Directors
Dr. Milind Shrikhande & Dr. Satish Nargundkar

Program Description
This program provides an opportunity to examine the business climate in emerging markets together with field experience in India. The focus is on Financial and Managerial Issues faced by companies in emerging markets. The overall course objectives are to:

- Explore the role of the State (in the context of a national economy) and the role of the financial and managerial systems for companies, focusing on examples in India.
- Analyze and understand the challenges of international and financial management within the Indian economy;
- Study the role and influence of financial markets and institutions on corporate finance, information technology and managerial decisions;
- Examine management and negotiation issues in a cross-cultural environment.

Accommodations
In Hyderabad and Chandigarh, students will stay on the Indian School of Business campus in their Executive Housing facilities. The Indian School of Business is our host institution in India. It is AACSB accredited and ranked among the top institutions globally by the Financial Times.

In Delhi and Agra, students will stay in four or five star hotels (double occupancy).

Application Deadline: June 30, 2017

Application Information
The program is open to undergraduate students who are sophomores, juniors or seniors, and will have successfully completed MGS 5100 and FI 3300 by Fall 2017. Program size is limited and participation is contingent upon acceptance by the Program Director.
