Name of Program: Transnational Urban Futures Study Abroad in Hong Kong

Name of Program Director: Katherine Hankins

Location of Program: Georgia State University and Hong Kong, China

Dates of Program: July 6th - July 18th

Program Description

The Transnational Urban Futures Study Abroad in Hong Kong will take place both at Georgia State University with field activities in metropolitan Atlanta, and at Hong Kong Baptist University with field experiences in broader Hong Kong. Both Atlanta and Hong Kong are hot and humid in the summer months, and students will be expected to travel around both cities on public transit and via walking. Students will stay in shared dormitories at Hong Kong Baptist University.