Program Description

The Georgia State University spring break program in Mexico City is an exciting ten-day program in Mexico's capital city. While immersed in the urban scene of the Mexican capital, students will attend hourly seminar sessions taught by the program director from Monday through Thursday. In addition to regular seminar time, students will be required to participate in all of the following field trips, excursions, and visits to historical sites:

- Teotihuacán Pyramids and Temple of Quetzalcoatl (lunch included)
- Shrine of the Virgin of Guadalupe
- The Plaza of Three Cultures (Tlatelolco)
- National Palace
- The Zócalo (main city square)
- Cathedral
- Aztec Templo Mayor
- Casa de los Azulejos
- Fine Arts Museum
- National History Museum (Chapultepec Castle)
- Capilla Riveriana at Chapingo
- Soumaya Museum
- National Anthropology Museum
- The Blue House (Frida Kahlo's home)
- Universidad Iberoamericana (lunch included, visit to local NGO)
- Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM, visit to library)
- Tianguis del Chopo
- Biblioteca Vasconcelos

Each activity will be accompanied by corresponding discussions and assignments. If a student is unable to attend any of the activities due to illness or any other reason, he/she may be assigned a make-up activity by the program director.

Application Deadline: October 31, 2017
