Name of Program: Mathematical Music Theory/ Shanghai Experience

Name of Program Director: Dr. Mariana Montiel

Location of Program: Shanghai, China

Dates of Program: May 16-June 1 2014

This program will take place in Shanghai, China, which is a modern urban setting. The students will live in dormitories on the university campus, and the physical demands will be minimal. The temperature in May is comfortable, with daily historical averages from 68 to 78 degrees Fahrenheit. Meals will be offered at the university; if students want to dine elsewhere, they should be aware of the hygienic conditions. We will go on a few excursions which will demand moderate walking and climbing.
