Name of Program: African American Studies: Race, Class and Gender in Contemporary South Africa

Name of Program Director: Makungu M. Akinyela, Ph.D.

Location of Program: Johannesburg, Pretoria, Durban and Cape Town, South Africa.

Dates of Program: May 10 – June 3, 2013

Program Description: This program will take place in Johannesburg, Durban and Cape Town, South Africa. Students should expect a mild Fall climate ranging from a high of 67 degrees F to a low of 45 degrees F. Locations will be primarily urban with some rural tours in an animal reserve park. At this location there will be some possible limited contact with wild animals in the reserve from the safety of a touring automobile. Students should expect to walk from two to three miles in primarily flat terrain. Students should also expect to be able to walk up and down stairs at some urban locations. Participants will travel by plane to South Africa and between Durban and Cape Town. Tours will be on air conditioned tour busses. There will be a drive of about six hours between Johannesburg and Durban. There will also be a short water ride by ferry from Cape Town to Robben Island.
