Program Description for Medical Evaluation

Name of Program: Study Abroad China—Global Aging and Social Policies

Name of Program Director(s): Heying Jenny Zhan

Location(s) of Program: Beijing and Xian

Dates of Program: May 11-June 1

Program Description: The first two weeks of the May semester course will be held at Georgia State University Campus. On Sunday of May 24th, students will depart for Beijing. Weather in Beijing and Xian will be slightly cooler than in Atlanta in May. Because of the change of season from Spring to Summer, students should bring a warm jacket and long pants as well as comfortable summer clothing. Travel will involve walking in urban settings, averaging 1-2 miles a day as well as climbing the Great Wall, which can be a medium level of strenuousness. There is an option of taking a cable cart to the top of the Great Wall at your own cost if the student feel his/her physical condition would not enable him/her to climb the wall. The travel will include airplane, train, subway, and taxi.
