Accommodations
All students who wish to stay at the dorm should check that you are applying for the dormitory. If a student does not apply for the dorm, it will be very difficult to secure them a spot afterwards if he/she decides differently. If a student wants cancel their application for the dormitory, they need to give notices at least three weeks before the beginning of the semester. If a student cancels their dormitory application after, they may still need to pay the dormitory fee.

Credits and Courses
Students receive Georgia State University credit for courses taken during this program. Students will carry a normal load of classes appropriate to full-time status and will receive appropriate GSU credit. Registration for classes at Chung-Ang University will be done with the assistance of the Program Directors at GSU and Chung-Ang University.

Disability Accommodations
Students with documented disabilities who may need accommodations during their study abroad experience should discuss these needs with the Program Director and the Office of Disability Services at the time of application.

Cost
Program cost may vary according to currency fluctuations and changing travel arrangements. Students pay regular Georgia State University tuitions and fees and such tuition and fees will be waived at Chung-Ang University.

Students are responsible for:
• Georgia State tuition and fees
• Mandatory international medical insurance
• Airfare
• Living accommodations, food and travel
• Cost of passports and visas

Visa Information
A visa is required for this program. More information will be made available by the Program Director after acceptance into the program.
